

The HKU Black Box presents

LIVY IN THE GARDEN

Livy is a young woman who struggles to come to terms with her pregnancy, expected child, and surprising isolation.

Set in Hong Kong, this play takes us into a frightening urban isolation in Hong Kong, as we look for new connections across the city.

Join us for one special night introducing Livy in the Garden!

The Black Box features staged excerpts and choreography from this new play by visiting internationally acclaimed director, playwright, and scholar, Professor Ellen W. Kaplan.
