

Friday (February 2)

- 9.15-9.30     J. Siebers, A. Pablé
Welcome and Introduction
- 9.30-10.10   Jasper Wu (University of Hong Kong)
Landscaping and the autoglottic space: a case of the Umbrella Movement
- 10.10-10.50   Feifei Zhou (Lingnan University) & Xiyin Zhou (Paris Diderot University)
Was Confucius teaching us how to do things with words? Reflections on ethics in language and communication
- 10.50-11.20   Coffee break
- 11.20-12.00   Charlotte Conrad (Dubai)
What did I say?! Learning from intercultural communication
- 12.00-12.40   David Eisenschitz (University Paris-Sorbonne)
Could integrationists be sceptics?
- 12.40-14.40   Lunch break
- 14.40-15.20   Johan Siebers (Middlesex University)
Unlearning language: Annunciation and renunciation in Lao Tzu and Heidegger
- 15.20-16.00   Xuanxuan Tan (Jinan University)
Hare is China: The articulation of youth subculture and dominant culture
- 16.00-16.30   Coffee break
- 16.30-17.10   Wei Desai (Lanzhou University)
The problem of "recognition" in Hegel's Philosophy

Saturday (February 3)

- 10.10-10.50 Kingsley Shi (Beijing Sport University)
Weibo as a public sphere: A study of the internet public opinion of social emergencies and unfinished news
- 10.50-11.20 Coffee break
- 11.20-12.00 Adrian Pablé (University of Hong Kong)
Is a general (and culturally unbiased) theory of human communication possible?
- 12.00-12.40 Jizhi Wen (Renmin University)
The significance of religious communication for constructing cultural community - A case study of the communication of Buddhism in China and India
- 12.40-14.40 Lunch break
- 14.40-15.20 Luo Shicha (Fudan University)
Media is 'mediation': A primary exploration on Régis Debray's medium theory
- 15.20-16.00 Yang Zheng (Hubei University)
The cross-cultural communication of Chinese films in the globalized context
- 16.00-16.30 Coffee break
- 16.30-17.00 Roundtable discussion